ROTHESAY:
HIGGIE & CO., PUBLISHERS.

PREFACE TO 1911-12 EDITION.

WE have again diligently and carefully collected and arranged useful information regarding Buteshire as it is to-day with its officials, householders, and business people—and once more have pleasure in giving the compilation the honours of the Press.

The previous four sections of the Directory are continued, and to facilitate the search for information the different portions are again printed on distinctively coloured papers—a feature of acknowledged benefit for expeditious reference.

As our Advertising friends appreciate the distribution of their announcements facing the text of the book, we hope, with continued prompt receipt of orders, to be enabled to make permanent this decided benefit.

Our desire is to overlook no interest, and therefore, we respectfully solicit notices of alterations or additions as early as possible, so that these may be given effect to.

This Directory is a much more important publication than many imagine. It is not only at hand for reference at all times throughout the county, but it is also ready for reference in the libraries of Glasgow, Edinburgh, London, Dublin, Cambridge, Oxford, &c., and in numerous business houses and agencies in busy centres throughout the kingdom; so we are particularly anxious that nothing of benefit to Buteshire be omitted, but that all interests have a good show, and everything be brought thoroughly up to date.

Our best thanks are again accorded to those who have in any way helped us in this compilation. It takes long and careful vigilance to ascertain and give effect to the continual changes, and prompt information and orders are, consequently, particularly acceptable and valuable.

COUNTY OF BUTE.

THE COUNTY OF BUTE comprises the seven islands in the Firth of Clyde, viz.: —BUTE, the most populous; ARRAN, the largest; the GREAT and LITTLE CUMBRAES, off the Ayrshire Coast; HOLY ISLE and PLADDA, off Arran; and INCH-MARNOCK, off Bute.

The total AREA OF THE COUNTY (land and water, exclusive of tidal water) is 139,658 acres, of which 53,510 are mountain and heath lands used for grazing. 3,806 acres are under plantations, and 794 are covered with water. There are 25,981 acres under all kinds of crops, bare fallow and grass, which is a gradual inroad on the mountain heath and hitherto uncultivated land.

The principal INDUSTRIES are agriculture, horticulture, and fishing. The islands possess great and varied natural attractions, and are in the forefront as holiday resorts.

The Population of the COUNTY (including its Burghs of ROTHESAY and MILLPORT) in 1801 was 11,791; 1831, 14,151; 1861, 16,331; 1881, 17,657. In 1891 it was 18,248 (8,057 males and 10,197 females); and in 1901, 18,786 (8,412 males and 10,374 females)—being an increase of 255 in the ten years—2·1 per cent. There were 4,270 inhabited houses in the islands.

For 1911, the figures were as follows:—

	Males.	Females.	Total.	Revised total.
Arran - - -	2,169	2,402	4,571	4,628*
Bute (including Rothesay)	5,081	6,781	11,799	11,851
Cumbræ - - -	704	992	1,696	1,707

*The increased total issued in the Quarterly Return of the Registrar-General compared with the returns lodged with the Sheriff-Clerk, may be accounted for by the enumeration of the shipping.

The decreases since 1901 are as follows: Arran, 209; Bute, 330; Cumbræ, 62—total, 601.

Bonnie Scotland's Resorts

(Prices—2d, 6d and 1s. Foreign payment by Postal Coupons.)

THIS "DAINTY LITERARY DISH" and "REALLY INTERNATIONAL PUBLICATION" was written by a travelled Scot after his return, and while full of interest to Scots at home, is of special interest to persons outside—to whom, indeed, it is dedicated, and by whom it is very highly appreciated.

The Introductory Pages

(which have been translated into the international language, Esperanto, and was the first-printed guide-book in that wonderful bond of union among the nations, and is becoming increasingly appreciated everywhere, and creating special demands for the fuller parent publication in hitherto untapped regions) succinctly describe the country with regard to its—

Situation	Rivers	National Emblems	Science	Sport
Extent	Climate	Language	Art	Dress
Appearance	Antiquities	Religion	Music	Light and heat
Mountains	Soil	Government	Banking	Communications
Islands	Productions	Industries	Postal	Expenses of travel
Lochs	People	Literature	The Sabbath	Accommodation.

In the text of the book there are concise descriptions of over

450 RESORTS,

giving their distinctive features, historical associations, names of famous persons connected with them, modern achievements and present means of communication, and indicating where

HEALTH, PROFIT AND PLEASURE MAY BE THE RESULT of a personal acquaintance: while those places which contribute advertisements, have special headings over such, showing railway distances and fares from large business centres.

The Appendix

is of a particularly interesting character. It contains incidents in the lives of Scots at home and abroad, with humorous and instructive morals.

SONG AND STORY AT HOME AND ABROAD

give numerous specimens of the national sentiment, and that, flourishing amid strange surroundings, has given rise to the paradox that the Scot is never at home until he is abroad (!)

The book closes with two pages of USEFUL HINTS for those on holiday.

"Bonnie Scotland's Resorts" is its own interpreter.

It is a most appropriate present to send not only to prospective Summer visitors, but also to friends abroad.

The Bookselling Trade, and Home and Foreign Societies are supplied on liberal terms.

The Advertisement Tariff covers the Whole of any One Year's Productions, and may be had on application.

Anticipating appreciation beyond the English language, we translated the introductory pages of this publication into the neutral international language, Esperanto, and that was not only highly and universally appreciated, but had the distinction of being the first Guide-Book printed in the new language, which is understood and used in every civilised country in the world. "Scotland for ever!"

Parish of North Bute.

THIS is the northern portion of the island of Bute. Port-Bannatyne, its principal village, is two and a-half miles from Rothesay, with which it is connected by tramway. Kames Castle, in the vicinity, is said to be the oldest inhabited castle in the country, and was the ancient seat of the Bannatynes. The village was named after that family—two brothers of whom (John and Gilbert)—received a charter from King Robert the Bruce, for services rendered at Bannockburn.

At the last census, the parish contained 449 males and 518 females, total, 1718—being a decrease of 88 since 1901, which was an increase of 150 over 1891.

An Unusual Use for a Directory.

A GENTLEMAN entered a much-advertised West-End Emporium the other day to look for an address in the Directory.

He found a lady studying the book very intently. He waited as patiently as he could for a time, but the lady still searched, and as his time was limited, he ventured to remark:—

“If you are not in a great hurry, madam, would you be so good as to let me glance into that book for a moment.”

“Certainly,” she replied. “I was just looking it over to find a nice name for baby.”

Parish of Kingarth.

THIS parish is rich in ecclesiastical history. The Irish Bishop, St Cattán, landed here in the year 439. He was uncle of the famous St Blane. The parish includes the popular village of Kilchattan Bay, which is about seven miles from Rothesay, and has regular connection by steamer and 'bus. The population in 1891 was 1062; in 1901, 1056: and in 1911, 967 is the only Publication of the kind printed and published in Buteshire. Its data is carefully compiled, and much time and attention is devoted each year to the careful investigation and noting the necessary alterations in the personnel of the occupants of public offices, the correct addresses of the general inhabitants, and the latest changes amongst those engaged in trade.

The Bute County Directory

The earliest publications connected with Rothesay were Directories, and they are interesting reading even at this time of day.

Our publication not only includes Rothesay, but embraces the whole County of Bute, and though it has increased in usefulness and circulation, its price and advertisement tariff have remained the same.

OUR FIELD.

NIA TEATRO.

In Part III of our Directory, we do not aim at printing such complete lists of Householders as will be found in the official Voters' Roll, published two or three months hence. While, however, we miss several names of the hundreds of persons whose houses are closed during the Winter months, we print those new ones which will not appear in the Voters' Roll until they have tenanted their houses for more than a year.

THE BUTE COUNTY DIRECTORY.

This DIRECTORY now-a-days contains the information distinctive of both the DIRECTORY and the ALMANAC of past years, and the date of its issue is gradually becoming midway between the original dates of issue of these two publications. We begin our researches early enough, but the airy Summer publications must hustle out while the sun shines. The DIRECTORY, although very useful to the fluctuating visiting population, is not necessarily a fine-weather publication, but a hardy permanent resident.

Our aim, in this publication, is not to record the passing names and achievements of visitors and those who come to cater for them, but something of far greater importance—the registering of the names, standing, and businesses of the resident population—for the information of all having an interest in Buteshire, its burghs and rural districts.

The Directory is, of course, not only for the remaining portion of the year in which it is issued, but continues the only printed reference book for the county of Bute until its successor appears.

One edition of the Directory is no sooner off than we begin to note alterations (and prepare for probable additions) for the next—so that it may be thoroughly up to date. These alterations and probable additions lie at our office, and are at the service of our customers.

Will Secretaries of societies, etc., connected with Buteshire, who do not already do so, please remember to forward to us particulars of their institutions, annual reports, and lists of office-bearers, as information for the next issue of the Directory?

We are not yet enabled to publish all the information that we desire, but that does not prevent us compiling (in anticipation of greater reciprocity) more than we at present print.

This Directory is not only found all over Buteshire, but in the libraries and other places of public resort in “the adjacent islands of Great Britain and Ireland.”

HIGGIE & COY.,
International Printers and Publishers,
ROTHESAY, SCOTLAND.

This international language having emerged triumphantly through indifference, ridicule, opposition and rivalry, and its practical usefulness being repeatedly demonstrated, some information regarding its present position may not be uninteresting to the general public—for whose benefit it is intended.

The First Congress was held in 1905, in Boulogne-sur-Mer, France.

Second	„	1906,	Geneva, Switzerland.
Third	„	1907,	Cambridge, England.
Fourth	„	1908,	Dresden, Germany.
Fifth	„	1909,	Barcelona, Spain.
Sixth	„	1910,	Washington, U.S.A.
Seventh is held (this year)		1911,	Antwerp, Belgium.
Eighth will be held in		1912,	Russia.
Ninth	„	1913,	Italy.
Tenth	„	1914,	Paris, France.
Eleventh	„	1915,	New Orleans, San Francisco, or German Switzerland.

These international assemblages have increasingly led, and in the future will more and more increasingly lead, to post-Congressional Excursions throughout the land chosen for the annual rendezvous. This year (1911) these excursions are to be augmented, for, in October last it was announced that arrangements were being made for an excursion TO BRITAIN before the Seventh Congress, in Antwerp and very possibly there may be more. The publication of "Belega Skotlando" and "Scottish Scenery," brought the attractions of our country before the foreign tourists, and the all too short but thorough enjoyment of Scottish hospitality by those who journeyed from the Cambridge Congress, has created the desire for more. The towns visited were Edinburgh, Glasgow, and the scenery which charmed, through the Trossachs and round the Island of Bute. The trip already sketched out is much more extensive.

Besides these annual international Esperanto Congresses, there are national gatherings in many lands, and local social meetings galore. The young and vigorous Universala Esperanto Asocio has had its first annual Congress: it was most appropriately held in Europe, but in America it simultaneously had a demonstration. The U. E. A. is a thoroughly up to date and practical institution. Through its widely-circulated fortnightly newspaper, and its (in November, 1910) 1051 delegates, vicedelegates and subdelegates, 612 consuls, 177 Esperanto offices, and 213 enterprises and associations represented in 872 cities and towns of 44 different lands, manages departments for scientific research, and the many forms of business and social intercourse among the inhabitants of all nations. Besides these activities, there are the organisations of the individual national societies, with their hundreds of periodical publications and translations of standard works into the key language—which everyone may understand and enjoy.

The country whose language is adopted for international diplomacy (i.e., France) is leading in its propaganda of this language—the common and direct bond of reciprocal communication between all members of the human family.

International Publications.

IS ESPERANTO WORTH LEARNING ?

A clever booklet by Bernard Long, B.A., Camb. Marvellous value. It shows the utility, simplicity, and steady progress of this one, united universal auxiliary language throughout the world, where all people that on earth do dwell may (and many actually now do) intelligently speak and write to each other, though not knowing a word of each other's language. Printed in English, price 1d, 2d, and 5 cents; postage. ½d. A reduction for quantities.

KONDUKANTO AL BELEGA SKOTLANDO.

(Introduction to Bonnie, Bonnie Scotland.)

This booklet has the honour of being the first guide-book printed in Esperanto, and is a translation of the introductory pages to "Bonnie Scotland's Resorts." Published at 1d, it has a wide circulation, and is cordially welcomed by Esperantists everywhere. Postage, ½d.

SCOTTISH SCENERY — SKOTLANDA PEJZAĜO.

A handsomely-printed booklet of over 34 pages of photographs of views representative of Scottish scenery, with the descriptive letterpress printed in Esperanto as well as in English. This publication is much admired, and the dual language descriptive of places has since been adopted in this and other lands. Price, 6d; postage, ½d.

BEAUTIFUL SCENERY OF THE BRITISH ISLES.

(Bela Pejzaĝo de la Brita Insularo.)

There are now over 100 regular propaganda periodicals printed in Esperanto throughout the world, besides a very much larger number of volumes of translations of national productions, all for the delectation of the cosmopolitan family of appreciative Esperantists. We hope soon to launch this other venture. Price 1s; postage, 2d.

BONNIE SCOTLAND'S RESORTS.

A "winsome little volume" of 150 pages of concisely-printed, succinct and interesting descriptions (in English), of between 400 and 500 Health, Profit and Pleasure Resorts, besides attractive introductory and appended pages. The idea of publishing this book was conceived while travelling abroad, and it has become the parent of the above-named International editions. Appreciated wherever seen. Prices, 2d, 6d, and 1s, according to binding. Postage, ½d and 1d.

LA ENAMIĜO DE LA NACIOJ.

(The Courtship of the Nations.)

An International Publication par excellence. The articles are written (in the neutral international language, Esperanto), by persons representing the different countries throughout the world. Each article is characteristic of the land in which it is produced, and as each place can be written about from several points of vantage, there is a likelihood of this publication appearing periodically with fresh articles—all tending to show that, notwithstanding diverse circumstances even in individual states, all are members of one great family, and that there is genuine pleasure in better acquaintance. No. 1 now ready, price ½d.

LA SKOTO ALILANDE.

(The Scot Abroad.)

It is said that "a Scot is never as ill as he is abroad" and this brochure (in the International language), gives glimpses of the North Briton's peripatations all over the world, and fraternizations with the inhabitants of other lands at their homes. This booklet is translated from the appended pages of "Bonnie Scotland's Resorts." It will be retailed at 1d.
